

AJ Paint Masters offer a full range of commercial painting services. Each commercial project is individually assessed based on the different surface requirements. We then methodically apply different approaches depending on the type of surface and type of commercial premises and usage.

The results and outcome will be fitting to the environment, whether a hospital, hotel, hospitality interior, warehouse or new office fit-out that requires painting. Each surface is treated and finished with the usage and outcome in mind, be it easy wash paints, heavy duty paints for high wear traffic areas or vinyl wall coverings, feature walls or murals there is a range of colour, products and application solutions, to suit any premises.
